WELCOME TO FREDERICK COUNTY

During the Spring, Summer and Fall seasons, opportunities abound to celebrate nature in all its glory. Explore the great outdoors with reckless abandon in the northern region of our county, well known for its dazzling 78-foot waterfall, the peaceful serenity of one of the oldest grottoes in the western hemisphere and the quiet, soothing elegance of luxury log cabins. Brilliant fall foliage adds a colorful backdrop for the countless events and harvest festivals that fill the season.

Enjoy a relaxing getaway to Frederick County, Maryland and you'll soon discover that threads of our rich past are woven through to our present. The historic sites and museums of Frederick County provide visitors with a living reminder of our colorful past. Special events like The Commemoration of the Battle of Monocacy, Rose Hill Manor's Fall Festival and Oktoberfest at Schifferstadt, will bring this rich history to life for you. Located in Maryland's Heart of the Civil War Heritage Area, Frederick County is a perfect place to experience the stories of life in a border state, with 150th anniversary commemorations beginning in 2009 with events focused on the local response to John Brown's raid on Harper's Ferry.

BEGIN YOUR VISIT

Begin your visit at one of Frederick County's information centers located at: 19 East Church St. in historic downtown Frederick (301-600-4047); I-70 at Prime Outlets (301-293-2526); US-15 South near Emmitsburg, Maryland (301-447-2553); and Catoctin Mountain Visitor Center (seasonal hours: 301-271-3285). At these centers you can get up-to-date information on events, historic attractions, shopping, dining, accommodations and much more.
